Cr.MMO No.45 of 2007.

10.10.2007. Present: Mr. Sanjeev Kuthiala, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Mr. J.K. Verma, Dy. Advocate General, for the State-respondent.

After hearing the learned counsel for the parties and on perusal of the documents as well as the reply filed by the respondent and the rejoinder thereto filed by the petitioners, I feel satisfied that since petitioners No.1 and 2 being the wife and the husband have amicably settled their differences and disputes and have started living once again in matrimony, the complaint filed by the first petitioner against the second petitioner, which resulted in the registration of FIR in question should be quashed and the proceedings brought to an end.

Based on the aforesaid observations, this petition is allowed. The FIR in question is quashed with all consequences.

The petition is disposed of.

Cr.MPs No.270 and 271 of 2007.

In view of the disposal of the main petition, both the applications shall stand disposed of.
